IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Application is granted to the extent set forth therein.
2. The Committee is authorized to employ and retain M3 as its financial advisor in the Chapter 11 Cases, effective as of August 1, 2022, for the purposes set forth and upon the terms and conditions of the Engagement Letter.

4. M3 shall file monthly, interim and final fee applications for allowance of its compensation and expenses (including reasonable fees and expenses of external legal counsel) subject to the jurisdiction and approval of this Court under section 328(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and in accordance with the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, the guidelines established by the Office of the U.S. Trustee, and any applicable orders of the Court. The United States Trustee retains all rights to object to M3’s monthly, interim and final fee applications and expense reimbursement on all grounds including, but not limited to, the reasonableness standard provided for in section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Court retains the right to review the applications pursuant to section 330 of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. M3 may include as expenses the reasonable fees and expenses of outside counsel, if any, retained by M3, without the need for such legal counsel to be retained as professionals in these Chapter 11 Cases. M3 shall not seek reimbursement of legal fees incurred in defending applications for compensation.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Engagement Letter, the Indemnity Provisions are hereby modified and restated in its entirety as follows with respect to claims made during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases (with it being understood that the existing Indemnity Provisions shall apply at all other times):

- a. All requests for payment of indemnity, contribution, or otherwise pursuant to the Engagement Letter shall be made by means of an interim or final fee application and shall be subject to the approval of, and review by, the Court to ensure that such payment conforms to the terms of the Engagement Letter, the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Bankruptcy Rules, and the orders of this Court, and is reasonable based on the circumstances of the litigation or settlement in respect of which indemnity is sought; provided that in no event shall any person be indemnified or receive contribution to the extent that any claim arose or expense has resulted from any such losses finally judicially determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have primarily resulted from the bad faith, self-dealing, breach of fiduciary duty, if any, gross negligence, or willful

- b. In no event shall any Indemnified Person be indemnified or receive contribution or other payment under the Indemnity Provisions to the extent the Debtors or a representative of the estate asserts a claim for, and the Court determines by final order that such claim primarily arose out of, such Indemnified Person's bad-faith, self-dealing or breach of fiduciary duty (if any), gross negligence, or willful misconduct; and
- c. In the event that any Indemnified Person seeks reimbursement from the Debtors for attorneys' fees and expenses in connection with the Engagement Letter, the invoices and supporting time records from such attorneys shall be annexed to M3's own applications, both interim and final, and such invoices and time records shall be subject to the U.S. Trustee Guidelines and the approval of the Court pursuant to sections 330 and 331 of the Bankruptcy Code without regard to whether such attorneys have been retained under section 327 of the Bankruptcy Code.
- d. Any limitation of liability pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in the Application, the Engagement Letter, or the Indemnity Provisions thereto, shall not apply with respect to any losses, claims, damages or liabilities arising out of M3's engagement that resulted from the breach of contract, gross negligence, willful misconduct, or bad faith of an Indemnified Person.

8. To the extent that the Application and Engagement Letter are inconsistent with this Order, the terms of this Order shall govern.

9. M3 shall use its best efforts to avoid any duplication of services provided by any of the Debtors' other retained professionals in these chapter 11 cases.
